

Working with psychosis and trauma in human relationship

Thursday 5 Sept. 2019

Facilitated by:

Matt Ball, Psychotherapist and Nurse Practitioner
(2017 Australian Mental Health Nurse of the year)

The workshop will consider:

- Trauma and adversity as a social determinant of psychosis
- Personal narrative and meaning in the experience of psychosis
- The relationship of psychosis and dissociation
- Approaches to working with psychosis from a trauma perspective

Matt has over 15 years' experience working with individuals and groups in Australia and the UK as a psychotherapist and supervisor. He provides workshops and consultancy in private practice and as a trainer for Blue Knot Foundation. Matt's work is informed by existential psychotherapy approaches, Voice Dialogue, mental health nursing and Lived experience of psychosis.

Venue : UniSA Mount Gambier Time: 1 till 5pm

Cost: $95. Registrations before 1 August $70

Registrations: junctioncoord@gmail.com or 04-77886450

In partnership with

